Daniele Morselli : Enterprise Education in Vocational Education: A Comparative Study Between Italy and Australia before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Enterprise Education in Vocational Education: A Comparative Study Between Italy and Australia:

This book develops and illustrates a new promising workshop methodology utilized for the first time in a comparative study between Italy and Australia. It is shown how Change Laboratory workshops are useful to trigger sense of initiative and entrepreneurship in vocational students.

About the Author Daniele Morselli worked as clinician and educator at the Feuerstein Centre of Jerusalem from 2007 to 2009, specializing in rehabilitation of children with severe learning disabilities. His PhD in Cognition and Education Sciences, which was awarded in 2014, was jointly awarded by Ca' Foscari University and the Melbourne University, and dealt with a comparative model between Italy and Australia for entrepreneurship education for vocational students undertaking work experience. In August 2015, Morselli will start an European Marie Curie fellowship at the University of Helsinki. The research project deals with teacher training in entrepreneurship through an innovative workshop methodology.
