From Palgrave Macmillan : Equality, Inequalities and Diversity: Contemporary Challenges and Strategies (Management, Work and Organisations) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Equality, Inequalities and Diversity: Contemporary Challenges and Strategies (Management, Work and Organisations):

Equality, Inequalities and Diversity offers an authoritative critical analysis of equality, inequality and diversity in organizations. Using international examples it explores contemporary concepts and debates based on original research in a number of fields and sectors, an ideal course companion for anyone studying diversity.

'Equality, Inequality and Diversity, reframes equality and diversity at work through the lenses of intersectionality and change. The text highlights the usefulness of injecting a critical perspective to diversity scholarship, which often focuses on instrumental expectations of business and management leaders. Across a collection of 16 chapters from leading scholars, readers can appreciate the broad spectrum of perspectives and issues that diversity and equality work has come to embrace.' - Mustafa Ozbilgin, Professor of Organisational Behaviour and Human Resource Management, Brunel Business School, UK 'A series of compelling analyses of equality and diversity issues with a range of contemporary themes. The book will captivate and enthral scholars, students and policy-makers alike.' - Professor Emmanuel Ogbonna, Chair in Management Organizational Behaviour Cardiff Business School, UK 'This truly excellent book is both inspiring and thought-provoking.' - Industrial Relations Journal 43:4, 373-374 'Equality, Inequality and Diversity, reframes equality and diversity at work through the lenses of intersectionality and change.
