From Routledge India : Rethinking Innovation: Global Perspectives before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Rethinking Innovation: Global Perspectives:

Innovation manifests itself as a key driver of improved productivity and sustainable growth in today's global economic landscape. This book brings together perspectives and case studies from across the world; discusses frameworks and actual conditions required for innovation; and examines a variety of themes, such as technology innovation, research development, team and human resource management, product and process creativity and entrepreneurship development to augment strategic and competitive advantage. It will prove essential to those in business and management, entrepreneurship, economics and development studies, particularly those interested in innovation, strategic planning and business leadership.

“[Addresses] the creation and implementation of new ideas, and integrat[es] them with systemic culture through . . . building . . . knowledge, capability [and] coalitions. [Its] global and local relevance [has a] unique appeal.”
Samir Ranjan Chatterjee, Curtin University, Australia
“This valuable collection argues for application of organization theories at multiple levels of analysis for a deepened and nuanced understanding of innovation.”
Sudhi Seshadri, LKC School of Business, Singapore
