Anna Linda Musacchio Adorisio : Storytelling in Organizations: From Theory to Empirical Research (The New Middle Ages) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Storytelling in Organizations: From Theory to Empirical Research (The New Middle Ages):

Storytelling in organizations is a notion that encompasses both the stories that the organization produces and the ones told by its members. It provides both an in-depth treatment of the literature on narratives, stories and storytelling and an extensive empirical case from an American banking institution.
